Stewardship Sunday is Nov. 18 Pledge Drive Kicks Off Soon

Our Stewardship theme this year is, "What Shall We Bring?" We all have much to bring to KCC, including our expectant hope that God's will is worked out in the life of our church. Our stewardship pledge drive will soon be underway. You should look for your materials in the mail at the beginning of November. God has done, and continues to do, remarkable things through and with us - things that matter! We trust in your continuing financial support for the mission and ministry of KCC.

Care to Share a Healing Resource?

What books helped you deal with the loss and grief of losing a loved one? The holidays are just around the corner and can be painful when a loved one is missing from special dinners and celebrations. Perhaps you sought relief from a book about loss and grief, or a collection of poetry, a sketchbook, or another source.

Please share your healing resources with the congregation; a bibliography will be printed in the bulletin later in the Fall. Please send submissions to Barbara Runco barbara.runco@gmail.com by October 15th. Provide the book title and 2-3 sentences describing how it helped you heal. The Divine Comedy

October 2018

Dear Friends,

The invitation to reflect on WHAT SHALL I BRING? is a profoundly spiritual question. And my most honest response to the question is to bring …

Hmmm? What Shall I Bring?

Well, if I'm honest with God and myself, then the only thing I really have to bring is … well …My Self!

My ENTIRE Self that God created, blessed, nurtures and sustains. And I, like many of you, are made up of many Selves that coalesce into one sacred and beautiful whole.

So, yes, I will bring My Self! I will bring my passionate, inspired, hopeful, deeply faithful, patient, kind, and committed Self. I will bring my lazy, cynical, doubting, rash, frustrated Self, too.

I will bring my hopeful Self for a better tomorrow, as it debates with the alienated Self that has been impacted by the devastation of today.

I will bring that Self that is honored to welcome the newly born and the Self that is humbled when it says goodbye to the dearly departed.

I will the Self that will celebrate your unions, and the Self that cries over your separations.

I will bring my dancing Self and singing Self to worship, and I quiet the Self that needs to meditate and pray in silence.

I will bring the Self that believes Peace is built one person and relationship at a time, and I will bring the Self that is passionate about advocating for those who suffer from the yoke of injustice and oppression.

I will bring the Self that yearns to bring you comfort, and I will bring the Self that preaches a faith that does not allow us to be apathetic or complacent.

I will bring the Self that adores the Christian way of life, and the Self that is in constant conflict with how Christianity is often lived out.

I will bring the Self that pours over and ponders the deeply moving words of Scripture, and the Self that will not allow the Bible to become an idol onto itself.

And I will bring the Self that believes in the spiritual discipline of dedicating a certain portion of my financial resources as a tithe to the congregation that I love in response to how God has so gifted me with the ability to do so, and I will bring the Self that derives meaning and joy from such giving.

The invitation to reflect on WHAT SHALL I BRING? is a profoundly spiritual question. I invite you to take this question seriously. Be prayerful with it and allow God to speak to you through it. It's the question that will guide our conversation leading up to Stewardship/Harvest Sunday on November 18, 2018.

Then come to worship that Sunday and see all the wonderful, blessed, beautiful, Selves that make up our Christian community of Kensington Community Church.

Peace. Love. Understanding.

Faith Programs Director Search Update

October 1, 2018

September was an active month in our search for a full-time Faith Programs Director. We conducted six preliminary interviews. These interviews were done with only a portion of the overall Search Team in attendance; and one of the interviews was held over SKYPE, while the other five were conducted in person at KCC. All of the candidates we interviewed more than met the qualifications of our job description and had given thoughtful answers to our follow-up questions. We were quite excited to meet them and talk with them.

Each interview lasted about 45-60 minutes. We utilized the same set of questions for each candidate. When all six interviews were completed, we met as a Team and narrowed our candidate list to our top three who we discerned matched the ethos and culture of our Faith Programs at KCC best. There was no question of each candidate's qualifications or professional skillset. It was a tough choice to choose our top three from this pool of six amazing people. We were blessed to have met and spoken with them.

Here are our next steps for the next few weeks:

- The entire Search Team will interview our Top Three Candidates in early October.
- By mid-October, we will invite Candidates on campus to meet other staff, participate in the youth group, deliver a Moment for the Young at Heart at the 10 AM service, teach a Sunday School lesson, and do a meet and greet with parents and the people of our congregation.
- We will negotiate a compensation and benefit package with the person we have discerned God is calling us to offer the directorship to.
- It is our hope to have a new Director of Faith Programs beginning their ministry at KCC between November 1 and December 1, 2018.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to members of the Search Team. We are excited about where and to whom God will guide our search. Please keep us, the Search Team, and our entire church in your prayers as the search nears a crucial and excited time.

Our Stewardship Journey

For the last half-decade, KCC has been on a journey to responsible stewardship, sustainability and increased mission giving. Due to the tremendous generosity of members and friends of our congregation, the legacy gifts of our Heritage Builders, and diligence toward budget integrity, we have traveled far in terms of our deficit spending.

We have much to celebrate! We have much for which to Thank God!

As we take these next steps along our stewardship journey, let us ponder the invitation and ask, WHAT SHALL WE BRING? as we also celebrate how far we have come.

Thank you so much for your gifts of time, prayers, energy, and money.

Director's Update-September 2018

On Monday, September 10th, the Church Chimes will begin ringing at 9:00 a.m. Children will come running, walking, or perhaps dragging their feet to KPS as the classrooms open for yet another school year. Some will arrive with great eagerness while others with a bit of trepidation. There will be smiles, laughter and tears. However, we assure you, all will soon come to know this is a fun and safe environment to be with their friends and teachers enjoying a brief day of work and play! The school will soon become known to each of our preschoolers as …"My School".

School begins at 9:00 each morning and will end at noon. In October, our Lunch Bunch, Stay & Play program and Munchkin Music will begin. The littlest tykes, 2's, will arrive at 9:15 and depart at 11:45. Our fabulous teachers are ready and quite eager to begin their school year. Classrooms are sparkling clean and so inviting, awaiting our young students' arrival.

Welcome to all our KPS families, new and returning. We know this will be a great year for learning and developing those important preschool skills as well as having lots of fun getting know each other while making new friends. We look forward to all the exciting experiences in the months ahead! If I can be of any assistance in this experience or if you have any concerns or questions, please feel free to call, email or stop in the office. Please direct any financial/Procare questions to our registrar, Elizabeth Burnette, at registrar@kensingtonucc.com. If you have questions or concerns regarding tuition, you may also contact Connie at connie@kensingtonucc.com

Preschool Sunday!

KCC is Celebrating Kensington Preschool!

Kensington Preschool has been nurturing children and providing a high quality preschool experience since 1973. Our currently enrolled children will serenade us with beautiful music, and

Our wonderful director and teachers will be recognized at the 10:00am service.

You can help make this a joyous occasion by inviting former students (short-term attendees and graduates) to attend, and of course, by attending yourself.

For additional information about the October 21st event,

please contact Pastor Darryl darryl@kensingtonucc.com
