Kensington Community Church Hosts Memorial Day Pancake Breakfast

- KCC Flips Pancakes for Neighbors Before Kensington's Annual Memorial Day Parade -

What: Kensington Community Church opens its doors to feed neighbors a hearty breakfast before the annual Kensington Memorial Day Parade.

When: Monday, May 28, 2012, 8 a.m. to 10:15 a.m.

Where: Kensington Community Church (KCC), 4773 Marlborough Drive, San Diego, CA 92116.

Who: KCC members volunteer to flip pancakes and serve up a hot breakfast to community members before the annual Kensington Memorial Day Parade starts at 10:30 a.m.

Details: Everyone is invited to enjoy pancakes, bacon, eggs and all the fixin's for just $5 per adult and $3 per child. Throughout the day, KCC also staffs a concession stand and supplies the audio system for the Kensington Memorial Day Parade. A longtime tradition, the well-attended parade features classic automobiles and colorful floats representing local schools and community groups of all kinds.

Since 1929, KCC has served as a beacon and a hub for the community in Kensington and beyond. For more information, visit www.kensingtonucc.com.
