

When Donna was job hunting a few years ago, little did she know she would find a position at Kensington Community Church—in the same neighborhood she was born and raised!

Donna comes to KCC with a wide ranging background in office and customer service work and finds her challenging, office administrator position a great fit.

Donna lives in the Rolando Park area of San Diego with her husband, Larry. Her interests include golf, cooking and gardening.