

David McBean

We are so pleased to welcome David McBean as our new KCC Accompanist. David is a San Diego native, and already well known by many of our KCC members and friends. He attended the San Diego School for Creative and Performing Arts and the University of San Diego (BA Theater Arts). He is a local actor, music director, and pianist and is the Vocal Instructor for Coronado School of the Arts. David will be adding his musical gifts to both the 8:30am (twice a month) and 10am services. Please take a moment to welcome him and show him some love.
